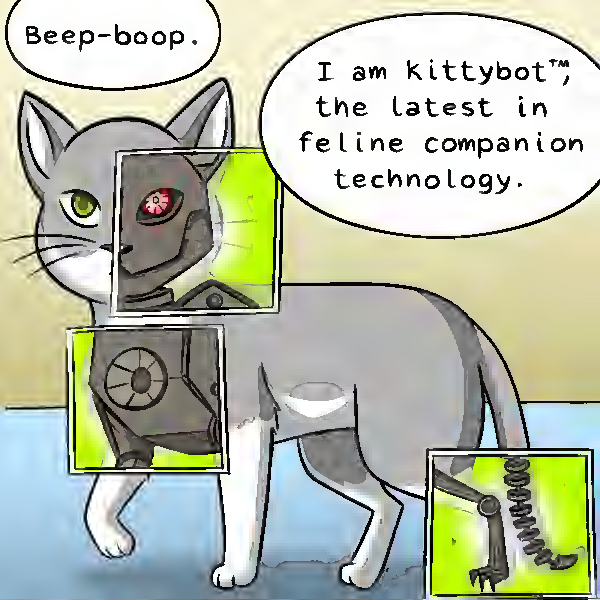
WEB TOON



Beep-boop.
I am kittybot™, the latest in feline companion technology.

At first glance, I may look like an ordinary house cat. In fact, my behavior is so realistic that even my owners think I'm real.
REALISTIC POOPS!
REALISTIC "LOVE"!

There's only one flaw in my design, and that is the exploitable "mode change" switch at the base of my tail.
MAYHEM OFF

If flipped too vigorously, it will cause me to malfunction, thus exposing me as a robot.
I only hope that my owners never discover it.
